Churchill Charges Labor Party Has Led British To Peril of Reds, Collapse

WOLVERHAMPTON, Eng., July 23—(AP)—Winston Churchill asserted today that the British Labor government has led Britain into imminent peril of Communism and national bankruptcy. The Conservative party leader said an economic collapse is looming which would "carry many other nations with us into chaos and Communism."

In a major policy speech prepared for a party rally at the Wolverhampton football stadium, Churchill declared the Socialists have failed to put forth any effective plan to meet the danger.

The wartime prime minister's address came on the heels of the Conservative party's 20,000-word statement of policy entitled "The Right Road for Britain," which was published last night.

Squandered Reserves
"They have squandered the reserves and resources which have been gathered in the past," said the 74-year-old wartime prime minister, "and have darkened and narrowed the future of every man, woman and child in this famous island."

He said every other country west of the Iron Curtain has made a better postwar comeback than Britain—even beaten Germany and Italy.

Churchill told his listeners the cure for this country's condition is to "return to a system which provides incentives for effort, self-denial, initiative and good housekeeping."

Promises Cure
And he promised that the Conservatives will apply the cure if they are restored to power in the next general election, which must be held between now and mid-1950.

All 40,000 tickets for the soccer arena of this midland's industrial city were sold out for Churchill's address, which was billed as the major opening gun of the election campaign.

Petrillo Calls Out AFL Musicians In Chicago Night Spots

NEW YORK, July 23—(AP)—James C. Petrillo says his AFL musicians are being called out of Chicago hotels, cafes and night clubs that use canned music facilities operated by non-union record-players.

Petrillo last night, however, denied reports that he had threatened to withdraw members of his American Federation of Musicians from hotels in other cities.

In Chicago, The Herald-American said yesterday that the musicians chief had "threatened to withdraw soon all his members among them famous bands, from major hotels in 54 cities."

The newspaper said the withdrawals were scheduled to start in Chicago as a protest against hotels using "piped" music, and against what Petrillo said is hotel employment of non-union help.

Only Record Places
Petrillo said the only establishments involved were those in Chicago, which are serviced by the Boone Electrical company, a franchise holder of the Muzak Corporation of New York.

For a month, he said, the company has refused to employ AFL members to place records on its record playing machines from which music is piped into the various hotels and clubs.

He said the company told him it was employing veterans to perform the service, but, Petrillo added, his union had many veterans for the jobs.

He said the veterans the company hired were receiving $35 a week as against a union scale of $107.

"We stopped this company from going into hotels, theaters and cafes," Petrillo said. "If Muzak records are played, then the musicians who play there must come out."

Legion Band To Give Park Concert Thursday

WASHINGTON, July 23—(AP)—Senators Taft (R-Ohio) and Smith (R-NJ) called on the administration today to delay its foreign arms program until the new North Atlantic council drafts common defense plans.

Smith, who voted for the security treaty when the senate ratified it Thursday, told a reporter he doesn't believe there should be "piecemeal action" on rearming western European signers of the pact.

"I hope the administration will delay submitting any arms program until the defense committee, to be set up by the council under Article 9 of the treaty, can canvass the needs and agree upon an over-all defense plan," Smith told a reporter.

Wants Study
Taft, who voted against the treaty, said in a separate interview he agrees there should be a study of the needs of the European countries before congress is asked to act.

Meanwhile, diplomatic authorities said mid-September is the earliest date the council can meet to draft common defense plans, because of time needed for advance preparations.

President Truman originally had planned to send his $1,450,000,000 foreign military aid plans to congress yesterday, but their delivery to Capitol Hill was postponed until Monday. The reason for this was reportedly a desire to avoid strengthening the hand of senators seeking to cut foreign economic aid funds in the midst of senate debate on that program.

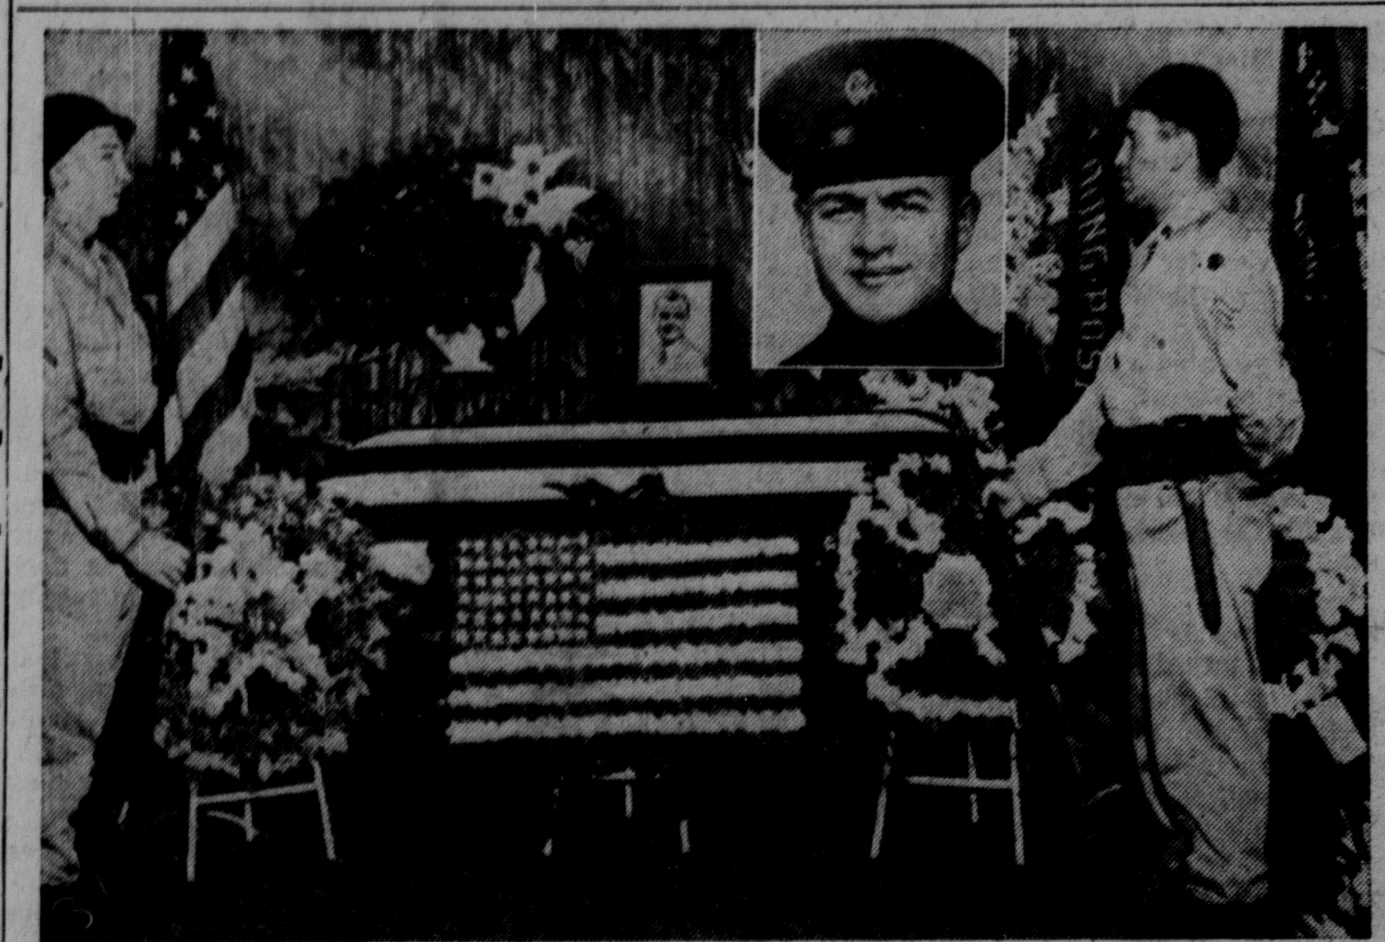

Besides a message outlining his plans for sending arms to western Europe, Truman will send along a bill authorizing him to conduct the arms plan. It was reported that the bill will specifically state that the provision of the Atomic Energy act, which forbids this government to send atomic explosives abroad, will not be changed by the arms legislation.

Would Re-Assure
Such a legislative provision in the foreign arms legislation would tend to re-assure those in congress having recently voiced fears that Truman may want to give A-bombs to Britain.

At Los Angeles last night, a top U. S. atomic official said that Canada now has the world's most advanced atomic "reactor," a device for the controlled release of atomic energy.

The statement was made by Dr. Lawrence R. Hafstad, director of reactor development for the Atomic Energy commission, in an address to the Institute of Aeronautical Sciences.

Plan Afoot To Put Ballot Change Before Ohio Voters

COLUMBUS, July 23—(AP)—Would you rather vote for a particular candidate, or vote for all candidates of one political party by placing your "X" at the top of the ballot?

This is a question Ohioans may have to decide at next November's election.

A powerful campaign—backed by a group of Republicans—was underway in the state today to make Ohioans vote for the candidate instead of the political party.

The proposal would abolish the straight-ticket voting system under which a voter can mark "X" at the top of a ballot and thereby vote for all the candidates of one party.

Substituting for that system would be the Massachusetts ballot system which requires the voter to mark an "X" beside the name of each candidate for whom he wishes to vote.

It was the opinion of some Ohio Democrats that the campaign is aimed at preventing popular Gov. Frank J. Lausche from "carrying" lesser-known party candidates into office.

Issue Petitions

The secretary of state's office yesterday reported 77,000 initiative petitions were issued at the request of proponents of the Massachusetts type ballot. A dozen stenographers are at work on an original order of 100,000 petitions. An additional 40,000 are on order.

Circulators of the petitions must file 301,829 valid signatures to place the ballot change question before voters in the November election. That figure is 10 percent of the total vote for governor last year.

In Massachusetts, the ballot groups together all candidates for each office. The party affiliation of each aspirant is listed after his name. That precludes "straight ticket" voting as practiced under the present party column ballot.

Locate DP Family Sent To Wellsville

YOUNGSTOWN, July 23—(AP)—A Polish family of seven displaced persons who expected to live on a farm near Wellsville, but found it already occupied, will be resettled in Iowa, said a Catholic resettlement director.

Msgr. Alfred J. Heinrich, diocesan director of the National Catholic Welfare Conference Resettlement division, said yesterday the 200-acre farm which had been made ready for Mr. and Mrs. Mikolaj Sawicki and their five children had been given by error to a family sponsored by another organization.

Msgr. Heinrich said arrangements to move the Sawickis to Iowa were being worked out by the NCWC resettlement office in New York City.

Indicted For Murder

NEW PHILADELPHIA, July 23—A first-degree murder indictment was returned yesterday against Andrew Covic, 65, who is charged with shooting his wife, Mary, 60, to death at near-by New Comerstown.

The Tuscarawas grand jury deliberated only five minutes before announcing its findings.

OVERRIDE HAYS' PROTEST ON VA

By G. MILTON KELLY

AP Special Washington Service
WASHINGTON, July 23—(AP)—The Veterans administration said today a reduction of the staff and services of the Steubenville, Ohio VA office will be carried out as planned.

Rep. Wayne L. Hays (D-Ohio) had protested against the cut-back.

The changes will close out the office's medical services clinic and vocational rehabilitation service, an official spokesman said. A staff of eight or ten will be left to handle contact service only, he added. Others of the 24 persons now employed there will be offered transfers to other offices.

Will Change Service
Medical services which have been provided at the clinic will be given in the future by VA clinics in nearby cities and by assignment to home town doctors, he said.

Veterans desiring vocational rehabilitation also will be referred to other points.

Large VA offices are located at Youngstown, Ohio, and Wheeling, W. Va.

A letter is to go out today to William P. Marlan, director of the Veterans Administration regional office at Cleveland, instructing him to go ahead with the changes, the spokesman said.

Marlan will designate the manager in charge of the reduced office services and disclose other details. Usually a contact representative heads smaller offices.

The VA declined to discuss a letter it is sending to Rep. Hays. Hays has not received the letter.

The reduction is made necessary by fewer demands at Steubenville for the services discontinued and the need for economy in the face of threatened congressional cuts in appropriations, the spokesman said.

Floyd W. McKee To Retire As Salem China Head Jan. 1

Floyd W. McKee, president of the Salem China Co. since 1934, will step down as head of the firm at the end of this year. His retirement will be effective Jan. 1.

Succeeding McKee will be J. Harrison Keller, at the moment president of the Limoges China Co. of Sebring, who will join the Salem firm next month.

Keller will leave the Limoges firm today and begin work at the Salem China Co. on Aug. 15 as vice president of plant operations, taking over the presidency the first of the year.

McKee said that he may continue with the company in another capacity for a time, but that he is not sure. He will, however, retain his substantial stock interest in the company.

The move has been contemplated for some time, McKee said, prompted by ill health on his part.

Joined Firm In 1918

McKee, who is president of the United States Potters association, joined the Salem China Co. as general manager and treasurer in 1918 when the F. A. Sebring interests bought the plant, which had been built in 1898. He became president in 1934, upon the death of Mr. Sebring.

During his interval with the firm the plant capacity has been increased three times. The plant now covers nine acres of land. In 1935 the company purchased the old Y & O railroad property.

Keller, who is a second vice president of the U. S. Potters association, has been with Limoges since 1937. He is married to a granddaughter of F. A. Sebring.

In 1942, when the Sebring family sold their interest in the Limoges plant to the Harry Bloomberg interests of New York and Boston, Keller stayed with the plant as president and general manager.

A native of Alliance, Keller attended Mount Union college, where he was affiliated with the Sigma Nu fraternity, and the University of Heidelberg in Germany.

He will continue to maintain his residence at 476 West Ohio ave., Sebring.

McKee and Keller, who are good friends, will work together until McKee's retirement.

The change in officers comes following Keller's appointment by the Salem China board of directors. Meanwhile, no successor to Keller has been named at Limoges.

LAUSCHE HAS MOUNDS CLUB PHONE "OFF"

Governor Asks Ohio Bell To Cut Service To Gambling Outfit

PAINESVILLE, July 23—(AP)—The telephone wasn't working today at the luxurious gambling spot, the Mounds club, at the personal request of Gov. Frank J. Lausche.

In the second crackdown by Ohio in a week, telephone linesmen climbed a pole in front of the club and disconnected service yesterday. Only last Saturday state agents raided the Mounds and shut it down on the claim its building failed to meet fire safety regulations.

When Richard J. Moriarty, counsel for the club, heard about it, he called the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. for an explanation. He said he will seek an injunction in common pleas court at Cleveland Monday in an effort to have phone service restored.

"I pointed out," said Moriarty, "that in case of fire in the club, or some other emergency, a very serious question might arise as to responsibility. But they (phone company counsel) said they were protected by their tariffs."

(Tariffs refer to state regulations calling for cooperation with law enforcement authorities.)

Lausche asked the company to cut service. Two weeks ago he said the powers of state agencies—including the Public Utilities Commission, which regulates the Telephone Co.—would be used to harass gambling establishments.

The hearing in Cleveland Monday will be the first of two for the club next week. On Wednesday, the state fire marshal will hear its appeal regarding the closure. The club has electricians and carpenters busy rectifying fire hazards.

2 Motorcyclists Hurt In Accidents

Two motorcyclists came to grief last night on district highways, both being hospitalized, the Salem state highway patrol reported.

Jack Stewart, 18, of Homeworth lost control of his bike while riding on the Sebring-Pine Lake road, just 100 feet east of the intersection of Route 534, at 11:40 p. m. Friday.

The motorcycle upset when it hit a bump, the patrol said.

Stewart was brought to the Central Clinic suffering from lacerations and abrasions of the head, face, left elbow and hands.

His vehicle was badly damaged.

A similar mishap happened to Elroy R. Owen, 28, of R. D. 4, Salem, as he started up the Millville hill on Route 14, aboard his motorcycle, at 2:55 a. m. today.

He lost control and hit a guard rail.

He was brought to Salem City hospital with possible fractured skull and lacerations above both eyes.

His motorcycle was almost demolished.

Plowed Under

Defeat of the Brannan plan for agriculture in the house of representatives overshadowed a fact of far greater importance to farmers and all other consumers of farm products—that the house also killed the Aiken plan.

This was the permanent plan adopted by the 80th congress, to succeed the temporary wartime plan of agricultural price support. The wartime plan succeeded the original new deal plan. The Aiken plan was scheduled to go into effect next year.

Events had made the original new deal plan obsolete, in the opinion of all persons concerned, including the farm organizations. The temporary wartime setup was not considered suitable either, yet it now seems likely to be continued in the absence of the Aiken and Brannan plans. The reason is obvious.

Congressmen turned cool toward the Brannan plan because it was opposed by the farm organizations. They turned cool toward the Aiken plan because it was a method of revising agricultural prices downward—an anti-inflation device. Congressional thinking is no longer preoccupied with anti-inflation devices. Instead, legislators are interested in ways and means of reviving inflation. Hence, their interest in going back to the wartime formula of inflexible price support at 90 percent of parity. It promises the highest prices for farmers.

Secretary Brannan, his plan plowed under, has wasted no time in issuing orders for a 34-state cutback in wheat production, to limit the size of the 1950 crop. Farmers wanting to share in federal benefits must curtail winter-wheat planting from 35.5 percent in Colorado to 13.5 percent in Indiana—an average of 17 percent. If the government must continue to pay 90 percent of parity, it has no choice but to limit the size of the crop on which parity prices must be paid.

Relieving Is Believing

Once more it's reported that a pill has been discovered for the relief of the seasick. And once more the humbled victims of that horrible scourge are full of doubt. Among the victims are thousands of veterans of World War II who were supposed to be immune to seasickness while crossing the English channel. They had been given a pill. But they were sick anyway.

The trouble with pills in this situation is that they must be swallowed and therefore can be unswallowed. To get around this, those who claim the pills are beneficial always specify they must be taken before the crisis is reached. But that presents still another problem—how to anticipate the crisis.

Except for chronic victims of seasickness who have abandoned all hope, nearly everybody who lacks ability to endure the motion of ships and planes is perennially hopeful. The next time things will be better. If it's the first time, things won't be bad. Too late, they learn their error. And by that time the crisis is upon them, and swallowing a pill becomes a cruel jest. Perhaps the ultimate pill has been developed, but until someone learns how to keep it down in the ultimate crisis seasickness will be one of the scourges of mankind.

All Doubts Remain

The one-sided vote in the senate for the North Atlantic pact does not signify that all doubts have been removed. Quite the contrary, all previous doubts remain, and new ones will be added as congress takes up the question of an arms bill to back up this government's first military treaty.

The United States has had no previous experience in this field. Countries which have had experience are able to resolve their doubts and misgivings more easily, because they have a better grasp of treaty technique. It has been brought to perfection through years of use in Europe.

There has been no European war for centuries which had not been made theoretically impossible by one or more treaties. But when the time came for war to begin, the treaties were useless. At that point, governments ceased to be interested in hypothetical situations and gave single-minded devotion to realities.

It is good practice in debate for congressmen to probe into the probabilities of the next 20 years, while the North Atlantic pact will be in force. But if at any time in the next two decades congress is faced with actualities, it will do what can be done, what needs to be done, what the American people want to do. That may be more or less than the North Atlantic pact and the accompanying military assistance law specify. The United States never has needed a treaty before to guarantee its survival, and it doesn't need one now.

Perhaps other governments do. If so, those covered by the new treaty may take what comfort they can find in its provisions. Perhaps such a treaty was needed to inform the Soviet union of the score. But the Kremlin already knew that the security of the Atlantic nations had been accepted by the United States as an obligation. It didn't take a treaty to produce the Marshall plan, the cold war, the Berlin air lift or any of the other signs of the United States opposition to Communist aggression.

Those who doubt that the North Atlantic treaty guarantees anything which wasn't guaranteed before and those who question whether its probable operation is clearly understood by its backers have historic precedent on their side. They can only pray that events may never give them occasion to remind their countrymen that there is no diplomatic magic in treaties. The North Atlantic pact merely commits the United States to do under certain circumstances what it would have done anyway, while committing the other signatories to do certain things which would be done only if they were feasible when the time came to do them.

THE STARS SAY:

For Sunday, July 24

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

SUNDAY'S astrological forecast is for a curious state of affairs in which schemes, curious and crafty lures, with subtlety and intrigue rampant. It may be difficult to sidestep entrapment in sinister snares or secret machinations, involving all work-a-day affairs as well as personal complications in which feelings, emotions and inner urges may seem overwhelming. Attend to the physical condition as well as reputation or curious alliances.

For the Birthday

Those whose birthday it is, may have a difficult year including peculiar affiliations of transactions of a subtle or intriguing complexion. These may have disagreeable reactions on the standing, reputation and probably health. Strange schemes, sinister involvements, obscure entanglements may find disagreeable reactions on plans, prospects, emotions or inner faculties.

A child born on this day may be inclined to be guided by strange compelling urges or drives, involving it in complications, reacting on reputation, possessions and happiness.

For Monday, July 25

Monday's horoscope encourages a very astute, clever and direct insight into important affairs coming up for decision and in connection with those in influential positions. Collaboration with such should be based on sound bases, propositions or campaigns in which deals or agreements are on a workable foundation. While responsible persons are involved there is room for error or mistakes, with hasty rather than well-considered operations. Do not rush extravagantly into debatable situations.

For the Birthday

Those whose birthday it is, while having promising affiliations with important persons, in place and financial standing, yet may be unduly impressed by wealth, and position into false security. This by rushing into involvements without reasonable and practical data, the mentality being obscure, likely to be influenced by false premises or erroneous judgments. Make changes or contracts with due composure.

A child born on this day may have important association with luring bids for gain, position and influential contacts, yet may be prone to make unfruitful decisions, with false judgment or hasty acts.

Guarding Your Health

By DR. HERMAN BUNDESON

AS a rule, we do not recover all at once from a serious illness. The road back to health is sometimes long and often tedious, but it can usually be shortened by good care. Moreover, obeying the doctor's orders at this time prevents relapses and insures against permanent damage.

Doctors know that the convalescent patient is often irritable, lacks interest and has a poor appetite, yet good nourishing food during this time is extremely important so that material may be supplied for repair of the body tissues.

The food must be prepared and served in an appetizing way. It does no good to overload the patient's plate, because this may only serve to lessen his desire for food. Between-meal snacks may be valuable in helping to supply the necessary nourishment.

The patient must be watched for signs of overtiredness, such as restlessness and loss of interest, yawning, increased pulse rate, slight fever, sleeplessness and loss of appetite.

Often the patient may recover more rapidly in new surroundings, if he can be freed from worry and care. A change of climate may often prove of great benefit, particularly to those who have a prolonged illness.

The patient should get back to his normal activities and duties as soon as possible, including such things as dressing in his usual clothes and eating his meals with the family.

It is also helpful to get the patient out of doors as soon as possible when the weather permits.

As a rule, visitors to the convalescent patient are welcome. However anyone with a cold, sore throat or other infection should be kept away, and visitors should not prolong their stay until the patient is tired. Furthermore, they should be thoughtful in their conversation and should be cautioned against discussing illnesses and morbid subjects.

Of course, good nursing care provides a great deal of comfort. A proper chair should be selected for him, pillows should be arranged comfortably, and the bed-clothing should be warm and not too heavy.

The patient must be watched closely so that if any symptoms develop which indicates a recurrence of illness they may be promptly detected and reported to the physician.

Moscow Says Catholics In War Set-up

LONDON, July 23.—(AP)—The Moscow radio charged today that Roman Catholic excommunication of Communists was a Vatican contribution to "the cold war that Anglo-American reactionaries are waging against the camp of peace and democracy."

It said the ban was intended "to split the United Front of people fighting for peace against the Anglo-American war-mongers," and added that it was bound to fail.

The English-language broadcast by commentator Boris Isakov was the first public Russian reaction to the excommunication decree of July 13.

Cites Propaganda Aid Isakov declared that by the decree "all the enormous ramified propaganda machinery of the Catholic church is placed at the service of the 'cold war' that Anglo-American reactionaries are waging against the camp of peace and democracy. The July 13 decree is actually one more Vatican contribution to this 'cold war'."

"The camp of peace and democracy" is a favorite Russian term for the Soviet Union and its satellites.

The broadcast accused Catholic clergy of "preying on the religious traditions and feelings of many plain people in an attempt to disarm them morally to weaken their will to resist the danger of a fresh aggression which is threatening the world."

"But this maneuver is doomed to failure," the Moscow radio said. "The broad masses of the people have come to see very clearly that they can uphold peace only by drawing closer to each other; only through a staunch fight waged by a united front of working people irrespective of their religious convictions."

Communists Unable To Move John Lewis

NEW YORK, July 23—(AP)—A Communist official testified today his party had a great deal of influence among Ohio and West Virginia coal miners. But he said the party couldn't sway John L. Lewis.

The witness was Anthony Krcmarek of Cleveland, a former miner. He said the Communists recruited a number of members among the mine workers about the time of the 1946 coal strike.

"We had differences with Mr. Lewis," Krcmarek said, "and we made those differences public in radio programs."

"We criticized the conduct of the strike in the sense that Mr. Lewis tried to narrow it down and isolate it from the rest of the working class."

Federal Judge Harold R. Medina asked if the criticisms had any influence on the United Mine Workers' leader.

"He didn't answer us," Krcmarek replied. "Apparently we did not have any influence on him."

"It may not be so easy to do that," Medina remarked.

Krcmarek spoke at length about his party's "concentration work" in the coal fields, and the judge encouraged him.

"You'll never get another chance like this," Medina said.

Krcmarek said the miners unquestionably were loyal to Lewis but sometimes disagreed with him at local union meetings.

He said many miners contributed funds for the broadcasts he made on the 1946 strike.

"They asked me to be careful in my speeches so as not to come into conflict with the law," Krcmarek testified. "They did not want this voice silenced."

Bored Fisherman Saves
Life of Eight-Year-Old
COLUMBUS, July 23—(AP)—Eight-year-old William Miller fell into the swift waters of the Scioto river today.

Fred Byas, 32, a railroad brakeman, was fishing off the bank with a cane pole.

He whirled his pole, and whipped the line in the direction of the floundering boy.

The line wrapped about the child's foot; the boy grabbed the string and was reeled ashore.

Fisherman Byas went back to his fishing. Although obviously proud of his feat, he grumbled: "That's the trouble with fishing here. The kids always come around and ruin my fishing."

Theaters

Will James' "Sand" starring Mark Stevens, Coleen Gray and Rory Calhoun is shown at the State theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. This technicolor movie tells the story of the stallion Jubilee and the thrilling adventure he and the humans of the cast encounter.

Shown at the State theatre Wednesday and Thursday is "The Younger Brothers" starring Wayne Morris, Bruce Bennett and James Brown. The technicolor production shows how men shamed as outlaws become famed as heroes.

Robert Young and Josephine Hutchinson portray a liberal minister and his understanding wife in "Adventure in Baltimore" at the State theatre Friday and Saturday. Shirley Temple plays a rebellious belle opposite her real-life husband, John Agar.

Leo Gorcey and the Bowery Boys with Huntz Hall star in "Hold That Baby" a comedy adventure at the Grand Sunday and Monday. Also shown is Johnny Sheffield and Peggy Ann Garner in "Bomba the Jungle Boy" an Africa thriller.

Gloria Jean, singing star, and Sandra Berkova, violinist, with Jimmy Lydon appear in Louise May Alcott's story film, entitled "An Old-Fashioned Girl" at the Grand Friday and Saturday. The action musical, "Home in San Antonio" with Roy Acuff, and episode five, "Fatal Dive" of the King of the Rocket Men serial also are shown.

'Good Morning' Says
Departing Bank Robber
NEW BRITAIN, Conn., July 23—(AP)—A bandit casually walked out of the Fidelity Industrial bank with between $10,000 to $12,000 in cash today after a daring armed holdup.

The bandit, about 30, followed Thomas J. Higgins, 36, the bank's credit manager, into the building when the latter opened the front door just before 8 a. m.

Forcing Higgins into the vault at the point of a gun, the bandit ordered the credit manager to dump the money into a white canvas bag provided by the intruder.

As the bandit left the building, he met Miss Geraldine Curtin, 16, a bank employee, at the front door.

She assumed he was a bank customer and greeted him with a "Good morning."

The bandit replied with a "Good morning" of his own and casually walked out.

Admits Passing $1,700
In Fraudulent Checks
INDIANAPOLIS, July 23—(AP)—State police reported today Vincent Allen Butler, 37, E. Lansing, Mich., has admitted passing more than $1,700 in fraudulent checks in Indiana, Ohio and Michigan.

Butler is in Miami county jail at Peru charged with issuing fraudulent checks.

Major Robert A. O'Neal, state police executive officer, said Butler admitted passing worthless checks totalling more than $700 at Martinsville, Peru, Mooresville, Rochester and Franklin.

The police officer said Butler represented himself as a salesman.

Using the same method, Butler passed more than $1,000 in bad checks in Ohio and Michigan, O'Neal added. He said Butler had admitted operating in four Ohio cities—Mansfield, Bucyrus, Tiffin and Perrysburg.

Butler also passed checks in four Michigan cities—Holland, Grand Haven, Grand Rapids and Muskegon—Major O'Neal asserted.

The man was arrested last Saturday by Indiana and Michigan state police at his East Lansing home.

Fire Destroys Home
EAST LIVERPOOL, July 23—Relatives today sheltered Mr. and Mrs. Ferrall Jones and their 16-month-old child after fire, attributed to an old stove explosion, destroyed their three-room frame cottage at nearby Oakmont.

Jones, who had returned from the Veterans' Hospital at Aspinwall, an hour before, was repairing the kerosene burners when the blast occurred.

'Readin', 'Ritin' 'N' Rithmetic, 1811

Despite their Quaker heritage the boys and girls of little old Salem must have been a lively lot, for there was rapid succession of teachers in the first years of the village. Hannah Fisher, first school mistress, was followed by Judith Townsend and Joseph Shreve, none of whom served for more than a year. The kids apparently met their match in James Tolerton, a genial gentleman whose sly grin belied the grimness of his statement that he "used the rod with great faithfulness." Mr. Tolerton labored earnestly under many handicaps. Desks and seats were made from logs sawed in half and raised to the proper height by posts at each corner. Quill pens were used with ink made from lampblack. Paper was scarce, and most of the reading and spelling lessons were taken from the Bible, the only book commonly owned by most families.

Today Salem youngsters attend free schools, in contrast with the "tuition" schools of the early 1800's, with courses more extensive and complete (except for Latin and Greek) than those given in colleges a hundred years ago. A considerable portion of the cost of operating the Salem School System comes from taxes paid by Mullins Manufacturing Corporation and other businesses of our town.

SOCIAL NOTES

Robert Barton Speaker At Friends Meeting

Robert Barton gave an interesting talk on "Missions" at a picnic dinner meeting of the Esther Butler circle of the First Friends church Thursday evening in the church social room. Husbands of the members were guests.

Mrs. Edgar Derr and Mrs. Rose Elton sang a duet, "Some Golden Day" with Mrs. Derr playing the harp accompaniment.

Mrs. Derr also played the piano for group singing.

The program committee arranged the program, while Mrs. L. E. Allen, chairman of the social committee, and Mrs. Charles Ogden and Mrs. Charles O'Connell made the dinner arrangements.

Mrs. Glenn Whitacre Hostess To Club

Five hundred was played when associates of the Nona club met Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Glenn Whitacre, Lisbon rd., with Mrs. Ben Ware, Jr., Columbus, hostess.

Prizes were awarded Mrs. Whitacre, Mrs. Walter Alesi and Mrs. Robert Culbertson.

A lovely arrangement of white daisies and red poppies graced the lunch table, which was set with lighted candles in white holders.

Mrs. Culbertson will be hostess at a meeting planned for Sunday afternoon, Aug. 14, at Woodland lake, near Homeworth. A coverdish supper for members and their husbands will be featured.

Monthly Social To Be Wednesday

Members of the Presbyterian Women's Bible class will have their monthly social at 2:15 p. m. Wednesday at the church. Mrs. James Stewart and Mrs. F. J. Tate are chairmen.

Health, Happiness Are Your God-Given Right

That man, in his real nature, is the perfect expression of God, is continually proved in Christian Science.

Through the study of the Bible together with "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, and other authorized Christian Science literature, new health, happiness, and usefulness can be yours.

At the Christian Science Reading Room this literature may be read, borrowed, or purchased.

Hours: 1:30 to 4 P. M. Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, and 7 to 9 P. M., Saturday
Information concerning church services, free public lectures, and other Christian Science activities also available.

Floating overskirts and swinging drapery animate evening gowns. Yards of blue taffeta make a sweeping overskirt that floats out from the snug bodice of the gown (above). Rose satin moulds the silhouette of the gown (right) which splashed with beaded embroidery is wrapped tightly at the hips to release a cascade of side drapery.

Mercure-DeJane Vows Are Heard

LEETONIA, July 23—Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Mercure, 43 Pine st., announce the marriage of their daughter, Geraldine, to James DeJane, son of Mrs. Iris DeJane of Washingtonville and Lynn DeJane of Canton, on July 8 at New Brighton, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dermotta, brother-in-law and sister of the groom, were the attendants. Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of Leetonia High school. Mr. DeJane is now at Great Lakes, Ill., for basic training in the U. S. Navy. Mrs. DeJane is visiting her sister, Mrs. Robert Chambers at Bowling Green.

Silver Circle of the Presbyterian church held a coverdish dinner at the home of Mrs. Eva S. G. Ashley Friday evening.

Albert Mercure, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Mercure, has enlisted in the Navy and is at Great Lakes, Ill., for boot training.

Mr. and Mrs. William Atkinson left Friday for a weekend visit with his uncle, Robert Atkinson at Columbia City, Ind.

Mrs. Jack McCoy entertained 25 friends and relatives at her home Thursday evening in honor of her sister, Miss Frances Milcetic, bride-guest of Edward Exten. The honor guest was presented with a miscellaneous shower of gifts for her new home. After a social hour, Mrs. McCoy served lunch.

Christine Ann, six-week-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Whitacre, who has been a patient at Youngstown South Side hospital for the past two weeks, has been brought home.

Lieut. Robert Breeze, who has been stationed in Frankfurt, Germany, arrived home and with his wife, Louise and two children, has gone to Kansas where he will be stationed.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Greenamyer are vacationing in Maine this week.

Mrs. George Woods and Miss Jesse Bell are vacationing in Canada.

Mrs. Charles Glass of St. Petersburg, Fla., and Mrs. Thaddeus Parker of Philadelphia have concluded a visit with their sister, Miss Erma Hoopes, E. Third st.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lewis of Youngstown recently moved to 476 Woodland ave.

Outing Is Enjoyed By Nazarene Class

Members of the Kingdom Builders class of the Nazarene church, taught by Mrs. E. M. Parks, enjoyed a wiener roast and social time Thursday evening in the Lisbon park.

Earlier in the evening the men of the class played a ball game with a team from the Lisbon Nazarene church at the Elkton ball field.

The class will hold its next meeting Aug. 18 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Miller, R. D. 3, Salem.

Late Eight Club Is Entertained

Mrs. Ralph Fratila and Mr. Robert McCloud shared honors in the "500" games at a gathering of Late Eight club members Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Paul Parana, Lisbon rd. Mrs. William Rutter received the traveling prize. Lunch was served.

The Aug. 5 meeting will be with Mrs. Ellen Edwards, E. State st.

24 Co-eds Are Chosen Mount Union Counselors

ALLIANCE, July 23—Twenty-four Mount Union college co-eds have been selected as Freshman counselors for new women students entering the college in the fall.

Chosen from the four sororities and Signet organizations, the counselors correspond during the summer with three or four freshmen each to acquaint them with campus life at Mount Union and then act as their advisors when they arrive.

A bookstore, from which new students may buy used books, will also be handled by the counselors, with Alice Weir, Carrollton, as chairman. Miss Frances Freese, Dean of Women, is faculty advisor for the counseling group.

The counselors include: Sarah Ann Dimit, Sebring; and Marilyn Morgan, Alliance, co-chairman; Margaret Kinsey, Laurie Phillips, Alliance; Jane Douglass, McKeesport; Leora Dretke, Canton; Ann Elliott, Wilkesburg, Pa.; Charlett Ellis, Madison; Jane Frary, Creston; Lois Heizerling, Lorain; Joan Immler and Martha Kuntzman, Barberton; Melba Lower, Sebring;

Kay Martin, East Liverpool; Vera Olsen, Berlin Center; Joyce Parker, Erie, Pa.; Pauline Rankin, Leetonia; Donna Ritter, Dunkirk, Ind.; Margaret Stoll, Princeton, N. J.; Sara Jane Wagner, North Braddock, Pa.; Jackie Weiser, Jewett, Jane Westler; Hartville; Ruth White, Pittsburgh, Pa.; and Miss Weir.

Mrs. Charles Roberts Is Bridge Hostess

Mrs. Thomas Beardmore of Salem was an invited guest when members of the SOS club enjoyed a picnic supper Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Roberts, Damascus rd. Bridge was played after the dinner. Mrs. Dean Barber and Mrs. Lee Pelley won prizes.

The Aug. 25 meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Pelley, W. Third st.

4-H Club News

Winona Jolly Bunch

When the Winona Jolly Bunch 4-H club met Wednesday at the home of Ruth Rae Mounty roll call was answered by members naming their favorite song.

Demonstrations were given by Lucinda Hole on how to properly sew a zipper; Nancy Lloyd on how to make a scarf and Ruth Rae Mounty on how to bake a cake.

A discussion was held on the club picnic at Firestone park. The meeting was adjourned with singing and a pledge to the flag.

Refreshments were served by the hostess and her mother. The next meeting will be held on Aug. 3 at the home of Gladys Satterthwait.

Genial Goshenettes

The Genial Goshenettes 4-H club held their Wednesday meeting at the home of Barbara Weingart with 17 members present. Members decided to have a doctor or nurse give all members a physical examination.

Five dollars will be given to the Donna Saunders fund. On Aug. 4 the members will have their projects judged.

Following the business meeting refreshments were served and a recreation period was enjoyed. The next meeting will be Wednesday at the home of Joan Wolford.

Peaceful Valley Folks Live Up To Their Name

HARRIS, Minn.—Peaceful Valley near here isn't even on the map, but it's good enough for Charles Ellsworth.

The 64-year-old farmer went to a hospital in Minneapolis for a major operation and left behind him a farm that needed tending, a threatening swamp fire and a wife and two small children.

While he was gone, a half dozen of his neighbors volunteered to do all the chores. They kept the farm in good shape and fought off the encroaching fire. They did all the heavy work.

Rescue Boys

CLEVELAND, July 23—A fire hook-and-ladder company had to be called out last night to rescue four boys marooned 25 feet in the air on a stalled carnival ride. The ride, called a Rolloplane, was repaired quickly after the quartet was removed.

Mrs. Frank Corso and son, Frank, Jr., are spending two months in Hollywood, Calif., with her sister, Mrs. Michael Conforte.

Miss Vada Cook of Willoughby is spending this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emmor Cook.

Blind Man Falls Into Subway's Path, Killed

NEW YORK, July 23—Above the roar of an approaching subway train, passengers waiting on the platform heard the blind man cry:

"Help me, please, some one please help me."

Louis Kerman, sightless newspaper vendor, stood on the tracks of the subway line in a downtown Manhattan station. Apparently, he had made a misstep yesterday and fallen from the platform.

His dark glasses and cane, dropped in his fall, were several feet from him.

He reached out his arms, groping, as he cried for help. But there was no time to help.

"What could I do?" Subway Motorman Frank Marmier said later. "I locked the brakes; it was too late."

A police lieutenant telephoned the dead man's wife.

"I hope he didn't know what happened," Mrs. Kerman said.

CALL LONG DISTANCE

"I wouldn't have missed hearing Mom get all excited when we told her about the baby by Long Distance," says Sally Smith. And the cost? Less than a couple minor layette items . . . which Mom knitted anyway. When you have big news, call Long Distance. It means so much and costs so little.

Calls go through three times as fast when you give the operator the telephone number of the out-of-town party.

Americans Eating Less Corn, Report

WASHINGTON, July 23—(AP)—Americans are eating less corn per capita, a senate agriculture subcommittee was told today.

Harry Hunter of Chicago, secretary of the American Corn Millers' federation, said the millers are puzzled as to the reason.

But he testified that corn mills are operating an only about 50 per cent of capacity in the face of another record crop of the grain.

The committee is studying agricultural surplus problems. Hunter suggested this program for corn:

That 15 per cent of all corn shipped to Marshall plan countries be in the form of corn meal, grits and flour.

Prompt action to discontinue processing of corn in wheat mills of participating countries, Germany and Japan.

That corn for food for such countries be processed in U. S. mills.

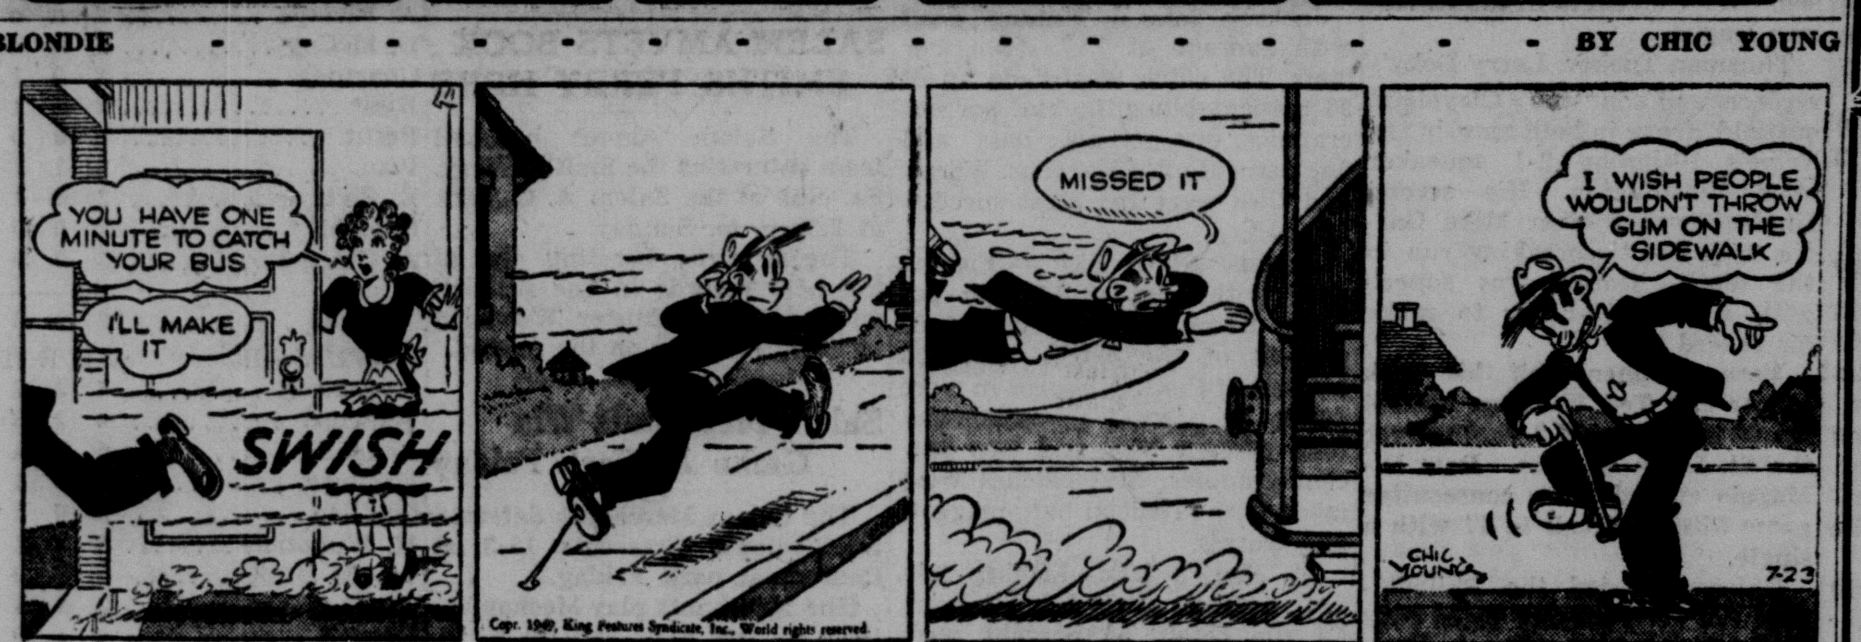

Investigation on how to use up to 20 per cent of corn products in other foods when the other foods are in short supply.

Publicizing in this country through the agriculture department, of the uses for corn meal and grits, and informing county home demonstration agents of the food value of corn.

Instruction of every U. S. government office and employee in foreign countries on the food value of corn meal.

Chairman Gillette (D-Ia.) said the committee's greatest concern is to find a market for surplus corn in which the price will not be so low as to ruin the farmer or high enough to discourage greater domestic use.

Thurman Tucker Puts Together Two Game-Winning Hits

Both Bingles Make Runs As Tribe Pulls One From Washington 2-1 In Tenth

CLEVELAND, July 23—(AP)—The Cleveland Indians can't laugh off those two disastrous defeats by the New York Yankees, but they haven't quit yet.

Great pitching by Rookie Mike (The Bear) Garcia and a couple of clutch singles by little Thurman Tucker gave the Tribe a hard fought 2-1 win over the hungry Washington Senators last night.

Garcia allowed the Senators only six hits and scored the winning run himself in the last of the 10th inning on a single to left by Tucker. Tucker drove in Dale Mitchell with his other important single to tie the score 1-1 in the third after Eddie Yost had homered for the Nats.

The Senators, who have lost 21 out of 26 games, were very definitely in the ball game behind the smooth hurling of bespectacled Paul Calvert, but they couldn't touch the big rookie in the clutch.

In the second, Ed Stewart and Sam Dente singled, but Garcia turned on the heat and struck out the side. Except for Yost's liner into the left field stands in the third, that was the only time Big Mike was in the slightest difficulty.

Garcia struck out five and walked one in gaining his eighth win against only three losses. The right-hander began the winning rally with a single to left field.

Mitchell placed a professional sacrifice bunt and Garcia moved to second.

Tucker, who replaced injured Larry Doby for the second straight game, took a ball and a strike before cracking one of Calvert's throws into left center field. Leftfielder Ed Stewart made a futile stab for the ball, but it bounced off his glove and Garcia reached the plate without a play.

The Tribe still is 5½ games behind the Yanks in spite of the spectacular win.

Bob Feller will be given another chance to prove his effectiveness today as the Tribe guns for the second straight in the four-game series.

Feller was knocked out in the third inning of the Yankee game Wednesday which the Tribe lost 7-3. Joe Haynes will pitch for Washington.

AMERICAN LEGION OUTFIT WINS 8-2 OVER CARROLLTON

The Salem American Legion Juniors have won another. This time the locals bested Carrollton 8-2 at Carrollton in a night game Friday.

Bobby Theiss was the difference in the ball game, as he allowed two hits and had a perfect night at the plate. He slammed out a single, double and walked twice, scoring three times. The Legion travels to Minerva Sunday for a game at 1 p. m.

BROOKLYN LOSES ONE TO CARDINALS; LOOKS LIKE RACE

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer.
Shades of 1946. It looks like another Brooklyn-St. Louis photo finish in the National league.

Separated by only 1½ games with 10 full weeks to go, the one-two clubs appear ready for the other long scramble to the wire. Boston still is in the race and the Phillies and New York Giants have an outside chance, but it figures to be either the Dodgers or Cards at this stage.

George (Red) Munger clipped a full game off the Brooks' slim lead last night with a 3-1 victory in the opener of the year's first "crosshul" series in the National. The Cards could leave town in first place if they could sweep the ending Monday afternoon.

Munger could mean the difference between these two closely matched clubs. His five-hit drive that snapped Preacher Roe's seven-game win streak was his third straight over Brooklyn.

Brilliant defensive play by Chuck Diering and Enos Slaughter helped Red ease past the league leaders last night. Slaughter ended the game with a leaping catch of Gil Hodges' drive against the left field wall with one on base.

The Braves moved within six games of the Dodgers by downing Pittsburgh 5-3, but their victory may have been costly. Vern Bickford was carried off the field with an injured left instep after being struck by Clyde McCullough's line drive in the seventh. As Bickford is the defending champs' top winner with 12, his absence for any extended period would be a vital blow to their chances of repeating.

Robbin Roberts saved a win for Russ Meyer by taming Cincinnati with the bases loaded and none out in the eighth inning for a 2-1 Phil triumph.

Hank Sauer's 19th homer with a man on helped Chicago down the New York Giants 6-5, as Johnny Schmitz survived 11 Giant hits to go the route. Sam Webb, who relieved Monte Kennedy in the fifth, dished up the home run ball to Sauer in the seventh to suffer his first loss.

Tommy Byrne tamed Detroit with five hits 8-2, protecting the New York Yankees' 5½ game lead over Cleveland in the American league.

Thurman Tucker, Larry Doby's replacement in the Cleveland outfield, drove in both runs in the Tribe's 10-inning 2-1 squeaker over Washington. His second single scored Pitcher Mike Garcia with a fine six-hitter to make his record 8-3.

Vern Stephens hit his 24th homer and Ted Williams blasted No. 23 in Boston's 4-2 verdict over the St. Louis Browns. Dom DiMaggio extended his consecutive rami hitting streak to 17 with a single.

Chicago routed the Philadelphia A's 12-0, scoring eight runs in the first inning. Connie Mack let Carl Scheib take a beating. Scheib pitched the complete game, giving up 18 hits and eight walks while the A's were blanked by Randy Gumpert.

Seneca lake—Fishing fair with average of 1.2 fish per hour. Bluegills made up of 60 percent of the catch, while 23 percent of the fish hauled in were perch, 11 percent miscellaneous, four percent bass and two percent crappies. Best catches were made with artificial bait, maggots and worms.

St. Mary's lake—Fishing fair, with average of .79 fish per hour. Of the catch, 55 percent were catfish, 31 percent crappies, 3.5 percent bluegills, 2.4 percent bluegills, and one percent bass.

Fishing Notes

COLUMBUS, July 23—(UP)—Fishing prospects in Ohio lakes undoubtedly will improve in the next few days, the Ohio division of conservation and natural resources said today.

Although fishing during the past week was for the most part fair to good, plenty of fishermen went home disappointed, the division's weekly creel census indicated.

Bluegills continued to dominate the catch, but many good bass, crappie and bullhead strings were reported.

At Lake Alma, where fishing was fair, fishermen averaged 1.43 fish per hour with 76 percent of the catch being bluegills. Perch made up 19 percent of the catch at Alma, where successful fishermen reported preference for worms and flies as bait. Perch were caught in deep, open waters on worms, while the bluegills and bass were hauled in in vegetation with worms and flies.

Fishing was reported good at Buckeye lake, with the catch averaging 1.3 fish per hour made up of 30 percent bluegills, 40 percent white bass, 25 percent channel cat and three percent crappies. The division said white bass were biting particularly good at Sellers Point on artificial bait. Fishermen also reported good luck with worms and shrimp.

Minnows, night crawlers and leaches were the favored bait of fishermen at Indian lake, where the catch averaged 1.23 fish per hour. Carp dominated the catch at Indian lake, with that species making up 56 percent of the total. Catfish, bass and crappies also were plentiful.

The creel census disclosed for other fishing spots:
Guilford lake — Fishing good with average of 1.7 fish per hour made up of 44 percent bluegills, 15 percent crappies, 26 percent perch, one percent bluegills, one percent bass and two percent miscellaneous. Bait used—grubs, redworms, maggots, minnows and plugs, with crappies hitting best on grubs and red worms.

Jackson lake — Fishing good with average of 1.17 fish per hour. The catch was made up of 96 percent bluegills, two percent crappies, one percent bass and one percent miscellaneous. Worms and flies were the most successful bait.

Portage North lake — Fishing good with average 1.2 fish per hour. Bluegills made up of 60 percent of the catch, while 23 percent of the fish hauled in were perch, 11 percent miscellaneous, four percent bass and two percent crappies. Best catches were made with artificial bait, maggots and worms.

Mack resurrected Eddie Joost from baseball's graveyard and the snickers were audible all over the American league.

Alleged experts questioned the sanity of Connie the Master's move.

Joost, they shouted, is all done. Joost, they shrilled, is a "has been."

Joost, they cried, is a "never was."

Today, that same Joost is the sensation of the major leagues. He can quite easily be the pendulum to swing the 1949 American league pennant to shreds, 84-year-old Mr. Mack and his Athletics.

Joost's powerful hitting and his masterful fielding have been the talk of the majors all season.

Here he is, at 33, rated the best defensive shortstop in baseball—and that takes in Lou Boudreau of the Cleveland Indians, Vern Stephens of the Boston Red Sox, and all other candidates. Here, before a member of the "Good Field-No Hit" club, he is now batting over .300.

Fans all over America think so, apparently, for they elected Eddie Joost to the American league All-Star team which will collide in the mid-season charity game with the National league next week.

Yet the experts who lifted eyebrows when Mr. Mack pulled Joost out of Rochester in 1947 can hardly be blamed for questioning Connie's move.

The bespectacled Joost had bounced in and out of the big time since 1936. Never has he hit more than .253 in the majors and his best year in the minors he batted only .289.

In all the rest of his career Joost hit only 15 home runs all together. His lifetime batting average was a measly .225.

But here in 1949, Joost is surpassing his great 1948 season. Already he has 18 homers, over 55 runs batted in, and is the chief cog in baseball's best doubleplay combination.

There's a lot of talk about batting stances, wrist action, and so on resulting in the "new" Joost. But that's only part of it.

The truth is, it's grateful Eddie Joost paying off in base hits for an old man's faith in him. It's Eddie Joost—determined not to let Connie Mack down.

College Singers Here
Members of the Ambassadors quartet of Eastern Nazarene college, Wollaston, Mass., William Parks, son of Rev. and Mrs. E. M. Parks, Cleveland ave., Clifford Keys, Harold Darling and Russell Bailey, who have been singing in this district the past week and staying at the Parks home, will leave tonight for Homer City, Pa., to begin their Pennsylvania tour.

From Pennsylvania they will go to Canada and conclude their summer itinerary in that country Aug. 21.

On Honor Roll
John Batcha, Jr., of 198 E. State st., student at Kent State university, was on the honor roll last quarter with an average grade of 3.25. Batcha, senior, is majoring in accounting. He is enrolled in the school of business administration.

McNicol Resigns
John McNicol of Salem, book-keeping deputy in the office of county clerk of courts John W. Coleman, has resigned, effective Aug. 1. He has held the position for 13 years.

McNicol has been ill for some time. Coleman has not yet selected his successor.

Condition Improved
Dale Burt has recovered consciousness and is in an improved condition today at Salem City hospital. The 13-year-old boy was brought to the hospital early this week suffering from multiple head injuries. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Burt of R. D. Columbiana, he fell from an overhead barn beam.

Join Air Corps
Miss Jamesetta Fox of East Hartford, Conn., formerly of Salem, has joined the women's division of the U. S. Army air corps and this week began her 11-week basic training course at Lackland air force base, San Antonio, Texas.

To Meet At Craig Home
The Methodist Youth fellowship will hold a devotional meeting at 6:30 p. m. Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Craig, N. Ellsworth ave.

Members will meet at the opening of the church school session, Sunday morning to make plans for a benefit next Saturday at the church.

Autos Collide
Cars driven by Ralph E. Warner of 821 Homewood ave and Homer L. Freshley of R. D. Beloit, were involved in a collision at 3:05 p. m. Friday on the 200 block on E. Second st.

Police said Freshley pulled away from the curb and hit the side of Warner's car, which was moving east. The collision caved in both right fenders and scratched both doors on Warner's car. It tore loose the bumper of Freshley's vehicle.

Two Colors on One Stem
Mrs. J. H. Hinchliffe of E. State st. reports that her apple-blossom geranium has two colors on one stem, one flower a pale pink and the other a deep rose. The plant has bloomed in her kitchen window all winter, sometimes with as many as 14 to 18 blooms. She now has it in the side yard.

Finds Weather Balloon
A collapsed balloon, presumably one sent up the U. S. Weather bureau, was found by Mrs. H. H. Nold of the Lisbon road in a pasture on her farm six miles south of Salem Thursday. The balloon had a parachute and battery attached to it.

Motorist Fined
Charles B. Wolford, 21, of R. D. 4, Salem, was fined $10 and costs by Mayor R. R. Johnson this morning on a charge of reckless operation. He was arrested at 6:45 a. m. today on Jennings ave.

Fire At Hotel
The fire department extinguished a mattress blaze in a room on the third floor of the Metzger hotel at 4:30 a. m. today. Only bedding was damaged. The fire started when a guest fell asleep while smoking in bed.

Escort Army Convoy
A motorized Army convoy was today escorted from East Liverpool to Deerfield by the local state highway patrol force. The convoy came through Salem at about 10:30.

Plan Afoot
Observers, carried a number of lesser-known Democratic candidates to victory.

Many Republicans believe Lausche may run for a third term as governor. Nomination would put him at the top of the Democratic ticket in November, 1950.

Would Aid Lessers
A Lausche-topped ticket, political observers say, would strengthen chances of a Democrat against Republican Sen. Robert A. Taft's bid for reelection. Republicans aren't eager to aid any Taft opponent. Observers said that's what underlies the ballot change movement.

The ballot change has won the support of the Cuyahoga county Republican central committee. George H. Bender—former GOP congressman-at-large who lost out to a Democrat last year—heads the committee.

Members of the group ordering petitions through the secretary of state's office includes Louis Cossitt of Toledo and Lucinda Baker, William L. Deckma, William H. Duross and Saul G. Stillman, all of Cleveland.

A similar attempt at a ballot change failed in Ohio in 1936. The bill was introduced in the 98th Ohio General Assembly, but it died in committee.

Circulators of petitions have until Aug. 10 to file the signed petitions with the secretary of state. Election boards determine the validity of the signatures. If they fall short of the total required, an additional 10 days is allowed to get more signers.

Many Attend Greenford Firemen's Open House
GREENFORD, July 23—Visiting firemen made up the largest numbers of persons attending the Green Township Volunteer fire department's open house last night. Besides area residents, firemen were present from Canfield, Austintown and Berlin Center.

Greenford firemen demonstrated the speed of their pumper when they emptied the 1,500-gallon tanker in seven minutes and refilled it in five minutes. Both of the fire trucks, flood lights, power plant and other department equipment were exhibited.

Myron Griffiths and Ernest Eyrick were in charge of the affair last night.

The open house will be continued tonight with Chief Audley Kuhns in charge.

Tandem Race Expensive For Kindly Motorist
COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo.—A good deed turned sour for Roy C. Hollingsworth, 22.

Hollingsworth was flagged down by a friend whose car was stuck in the mud. Amiable Hollingsworth gave his friend a push and ended up with a $50 fine and with having his driver's license revoked.

Hollingsworth's car locked bumpers with his friend's car and the two were picked up for speeding after being seen racing down the street 50 miles an hour, bumpers still locked.

The choke control should be checked carefully if there is continual difficulty in starting, the car.

Kennel Club Meeting

A coverd picnic supper will be held at 7 p. m. Wednesday at the home of H. C. Hurlburt, 750 Highland ave., when the Columbiana County Kennel club has its July meeting.

On the program will be a dog judging contest. Each member may take part in judging two rings of dogs. The Aug. 21st dog show will be discussed.

Deaths and Funerals

MRS. M. C. CLAY, SR.
Mrs. Mary Penellia Clay, 82, died of a heart condition at 9:30 a. m. today at her home on the New Albany-Greenford rd. She had been ill two months.

Born Dec. 26, 1866, in the home where she died, she was the daughter of Isaac and Mary Lodge Holloway. She and her husband, M. C. Clay, Sr., who died in 1933, had operated a greenhouse on their property for 66 years, a business continued by their son and wife.

A member of the Greenford Lutheran church, she also belonged to the Order of Eastern Star, Pythian Sisters of Greenford, Home lodge, Daughters of Rebekah, and was a charter member of Greenford grange in which she and her husband were active for many years.

Survivors include a son, Carl Clay; three grandchildren, and 10 great-grandchildren.

Funeral service will be held at 2:30 p. m. Monday at the Arbaugh-Pearce funeral home in charge of Rev. Arvid Kuitunen. Interment will be in Hope cemetery.

Friends may call Sunday afternoon and evening at the funeral home.

JOHN L. WISLER
John L. Wisler, 85, of the Columbiana-Leetonia rd., died of complications at 11:45 Friday at his home. He had been ill seven months.

Born Feb. 7, 1864, in Leetonia, he was the son of Jonas and Magdalena Lesher Wisler. He was married Dec. 29, 1887, at Leetonia.

MARTIN B. HAMILTON
LISBON, July 23—Martin Bennett Hamilton, 64, died at 5:40 a. m. today at his home on W. Maple st., following a four week illness.

He was born in Butler county, Pa., Aug. 21, 1884, the son of Joseph and Priscilla Hamilton. He had resided here for several years and was a member of the Emmanuel chapel.

Surviving are his wife, Lydia; three daughters, Mrs. Agnes Causar of Masury, Pa., Mrs. Ruth Marin of Sharon, Pa., Mrs. Clara O'Connor of Muddy Creek, Pa., a son, William of Masury; a sister, Mrs. Pearl Ransdale of Olympia, Wash.; seven step-children.

Funeral service will be held at the Eells-Leggett funeral home at 1 p. m. Monday, in charge of Rev. J. W. Lashbrook. Burial will be in West Sunbury, Pa.

Friends may call at the funeral home Sunday evening.

Pilots Train Through Wall of Gasoline Flame
MONTERELLO, Calif., July 23—(AP)—A heroic engineer who brought his streamliner train through a seething wall of flames is near death today.

The driver of the gasoline truck hit by the train died Thursday night. He was Harry G. Heaton, of Bell, Calif.

The engineer, H. E. Byers, 55, Las Vegas, Nev., was credited by officers with saving some 150 passengers by staying at the controls and rolling the Union Pacific's "City of Los Angeles" through the flames, which roared several hundred feet high as the 7,300-gallon truck exploded.

Byers was burned critically on his arms and upper body. A second engineer, Edward M. Dennis, 45, Las Vegas, was burned less seriously. Before he died, the truck driver told sheriff's deputies that the truck's shaft apparently broke as it started to cross the tracks.

Marshall Dies
DELAWARE, July 23—Veley Main, 60, deputy United States marshal in Columbus, died yesterday of a heart ailment. Main had served as sheriff of Delaware county from 1928 to 1932.

The average size of a farm in the United States in 1920 was about 148 acres.

Washingtonville Slate Is Chosen

WASHINGTONVILLE, July 23—Mayor Lloyd Culler was nominated for mayor at a citizens meeting Wednesday in the village hall. Election of village officials will be held in November.

Other nominations include: Margaret Spears for clerk; John G. King, treasurer; George Boston, John Volpe, William Dalrymple, Leslie Tingle, Harry DeLucia and Lloyd Berg, councilmen; Robert Boston, F. G. Davis and Earl Kelley, board of public affairs, and Walter Berg for the board of education post.

AVIATION NOTES

News of Activities of Salem Airmen, Local Flying Fields

Doug Turner, local consulting engineer, used the facilities of a small aircraft charter flight this week when he flew from near-by Miller field to Morgantown, W. Va. He made the trip to inspect some machinery installed by his company.

Art Gose of East Palestine will travel to his vacation spot by air. On Tuesday he will use a Republic Seabee to fly to Sudbury, Ont., Canada.

We Try to Boost Home Interests

When it comes to a choice between home folks and outsiders, home folks come first. Isn't that the way you feel about it?

The First National Bank is a home institution. We are working for the prosperity and development of the Salem area, and for the individual welfare of our friends and neighbors. This has been our policy since 1863 . . . and always will be our policy.

Therefore, we always like to see the money that is earned in this community, spent here, saved here and circulated here to benefit local interests.
